The restful... carefree WAY TO GO

There isn't a more enjoyable or restful way to visit the western vacationlands than by train. Going to California, the Pacific Northwest, Sun Valley, Idaho, Yellowstone, or the Southern Utah-Arizona National Parks, you can board a Union Pacific Domeliner with beautiful Astra Dome equipment. To Colorado—from Chicago—it's just overnight on the modern "City of Denver" Streamliner. There's also excellent service to Denver from the Pacific Coast.

The Domeliner "City of St. Louis" operates between that city and Denver, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

So, why not avoid wear and tear on your car, and on yourself, by taking the train. You'll be completely relaxed, enjoy sound sleep and wonderful meals. When making your train reservations you can arrange to have a new, insured car waiting for you on arrival at your destination. Hertz Rent-a-Car rates are quite reasonable. The Family Fare Plan offers a big saving in rail fares for two or more persons in a family group. This plan applies on all Union Pacific trains. Ask your travel or ticket agent for details.

The Astra Dome Dining Room provides new thrills to dining.

The downstairs of the Astra Dome Lounge is a pleasant place to relax.
